Submitted to His Highness.

I submit a letter from Mr. Karpur Srinivasa Rao, Karachi, offering an annual prize of Rs.100 to the best student passing the Mysore Vidwat Examination in certain branches, together with a memo showing the conditions of the prize. Mr. Srinivasa Rao also prays that the prize may be awarded by His Highness along with the Sanskrit College Diplomas during the Dasara.

Mr. Srinivasa Rao's offer is a very generous one and may, I think, be accepted on the conditions proposed by him.

My dear sir,

Herewith I send Rs100 with a memo showing the con-
-ditions under which this amount may be offered as a prize to the best student passing out the Vidvat Examination from Mysore in certain branches. I beg to request you will kindly move His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore to graciously accept this humble offer of a subject of Mysore, whose love for Sanscrit literature has prompted him to thus come forward to help the cause of high-er Sanscrit education in Mysore.

I pray the prize may be kindly arranged to be award-
-ed by His Highness the Maharaja along with the Sanscrit College Diplomas at the ensuing Dasara festivities as usual.

I may add that I will arrange to send similar prizes in future years.

Yours sincerely,

Karpur Srinivasao

The "Nyaya Philosophy" prize

offered by

Mr. Karpur Shrinivasrao

To encourage the study of the higher branches of Nyaya philosophy, a prize of Rs.100 is offered to the candidate who passes the Mysore Vidvat Examination in the Nyaya branch with the highest number of marks. The prize will be offered every year and this may be awarded along with the other Diplomas during the Dasara festivities by His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore.

If there is no candidate in the Nyaya branch it may be awarded to the candidate who may pass in the "Nyaya Sankhya Darsanas branch".

As a special case this year (1905), if there is no candidate in either of the two branches noted above, the prize may be awarded to the candidate who may obtain the highest place in the "Vyakarana" branch in the Mysore Vidvat Examination.
